The “Producer Network”

- Traditional telecommunications networks have focused exclusively on the consumer network, in which users merely consume information, not produce content or services.
- The E-corridors concept is focused on the vision that every consumer has the potential to become a producer of information services on the commodity Internet. Following are some examples of network “producers”.
Each week the BCS relies on Massey ratings for college football rankings.
The Massey Ratings are a proud component of college football's Bowl Championship Series.

Vintage Cellar
Introduction

Welcome to Vintage Cellar On-line Homebrew Store. This site contains our complete catalog and additional information on recipe formulation, as well as, uses and characteristics of malt, hops, and yeast.

We are located in Blacksburg, Virginia. We specialize in homebrew supplies and ingredients. We also sell over 300 types of microbrewed and imported beer and over 1,000 varieties of domestic and imported wine.

We are committed to providing complete customer service. In addition to the Vintage Cellar staff, Kenny Leekowitz of New River Brewing Company is is more than happy to answer any brewing related questions. Follow this link to ask any brewing related question. We are happy to spend as much time as required to completely answer your questions.

We appreciate your business at Vintage Cellar. We promise to beat or match any other retail homebrew supplier’s prices. If you find any of our items for less elsewhere let us know.

Please note all prices are subject to change and final shipping weight will be higher than the estimates on the page because of rounding and packaging materials.
